- Still working on special projects, nothing to show yet.
- Been doing lots of background things you all can't see, such as finding ways to make our executive meetings more efficient.
- The special projects have been slow going, as I've been helping many of the other departments.

We know you guys want answers about what's going to happen with Kumo this year. We will let you know soon.
Thank you for being patient with us!
There are SO MANY THINGS coming.
