KUMORIBALL DRESS CODE

All attendees are required to wear their masks the entire time. No exceptions. Hand-held masks may be cumbersome; if you bring this type, it must be held up to the face at all times.

Acceptable masks: Full faced, half faced, cloth, paint, leather, metal, etc.*

*Goggles, glasses, and monocles are not acceptable on their own.

This is a formal event. Attendees not wearing formal attire will not be admitted.

Shoes must be worn at all times. This is hotel policy. No exceptions. Close-toed shoes are advised.

There is no coat check. Plan accordingly.

Kumoricon is not responsible for any lost, stolen or damaged items.

Formal attire is comprised of suits, slacks, button up shirts, blouses, knee/ankle length dresses, capes, and other worldly accepted ceremonial/military attire.

Cosplays are permitted, provided they follow the above guidelines. The following will not be admitted if presented:

- Sweats
- Shorts
- Jeans
- Ripped clothing
- Skirts/dresses above the knee
- Bare midriffs
- T-shirts
- Tank tops
- Tube tops
- Swimwear
- Bulky props/wings/etc.

Exceptions will be made on a limited case-by-case basis at the door.
