LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

Last October, while taking a break from Kumoricon preparations, I found myself retrieving my jaw from the floor. Not literally, of course. Rather, I was watching anime and had just seen something so visually stunning that I couldn't quite believe it. I'd just finished the first episode of Yuri!!! on ICE, and its figure skating sequences were breathtaking.

It's not often, maybe once every couple of years, that anime leaves such a strong impression on me. The impression each one leaves is frequently different, but when it happens, I've learned to pay attention, as it's an indication that there may be something greater happening than pictures moving on a screen. I can only be grateful that I would be left with such an impression two more times this past year, during the US theatrical releases of both Your Name and In This Corner of the World.

However, this past year is not entirely unique. 2003 also saw the creation of multiple productions that have had a lasting effect on me, although I didn't discover them until a year later. The first is an experience I have in common with many anime fans of that era. Fullmetal Alchemist aired in Japan, was licensed by Funimation, and quickly proceeded to usher in a boom in the US anime industry. The second wasn't an anime. It was an event. I am, of course, referring to the first Kumoricon.

Speaking of Kumoricon, it is my pleasure to welcome you to Kumoricon 2017! Can you believe it's already our fifteenth year? It's true. We've come a long way, and while it hasn't always been easy, getting here was worth it. We've put a lot of effort into making this year even more awesome than usual, and I dare say it shows. It's no exaggeration to say that our guest lineup this year is the best we've ever had. To start with, we once again welcome the amazing Kieran Strange. Music lovers are sure to be delighted by our first visual kei band, Kra, as well as our DJs, including ☆ Taku Takahashi, TeddyLoid, and a special mystery DJ that, as of writing this letter, I'm not allowed to talk about yet. Our fashion guest is the lolita brand BABY, the Stars Shine Bright, and I would call your attention to our two cosplay guests, Fighting Dreamers Productions and Uptown Cosplay. Studio TRIGGER will be returning this year, joined by Hiroyasu Kobayashi from Studio khara. Wacom has graciously assisted us in bringing Steve Ahn, Grant Alexander, Anthony Holden, and Eugene Lee, all veterans of DreamWorks and Pixar. Finally, Josh Grelle, Todd Haberkorn, Jerry Jewell, Cherami Leigh, Vic Mignogna, and Lisle Wilkerson round out the guest list as our cast of voice actors. And we haven't even covered visiting industry, like Funimation!

Of course, guests aren't the only thing that makes Kumoricon fun. It's also the things you can do! In addition to our regular lineup of contests, events, and variety of fan panels, we have some brand new content you may want to check out. First, for those who were lucky enough to obtain tickets, there's our lolita fashion event, the All Hallows' Kawaii Tea Party. We're also screening four Funimation premieres, hosting an on-site escape room, and running our first maid café. That's right, Ghost Neko's Purranormal Maid Café will be open for business this year at the DoubleTree, Friday through Sunday, so be sure to drop by.

Ultimately, what makes Kumoricon special isn't our guest list or programming, but people. And so, I would like to thank all the members of our community: our attendees, sponsors, and most especially our volunteers. Kumoricon could not exist without your support. I sincerely hope that you'll continue to support us for the next fifteen years and that Kumoricon 2017 will leave you with a lasting, and favorable, impression.

M Y S T E R Y S K U L L S

Following a steady two years of touring behind 2014 debut Forever—a #1 hit on the iTunes dance chart—Mystery Skulls is set to release the soulful pop odyssey One Of Us on August 4. For this follow-up, the genre-bending mastermind built upon his sonic tapestry of soul, house, disco, and R&B, while zeroing in on a single “Big Brother”—esque concept: following the relationship of two underground-lowlife residents in a dystopian world as they fight to escape shadowy forces exerting control over society. Joyful lead single “Music” previews the album by declaring that, even in the worst of times, at least there will always be melodies that lift us higher.

Born Luis Dubuc in Venezuela, Mystery Skulls spent most of his childhood in Toronto living above a video store, teaching himself English by consuming horror and sci-fi epics. Relocating once again, to Dallas, led him to pick up his first pair of drumsticks where he channeled his collective admiration of idols, from Michael Jackson to Nirvana to The Locust, into his earliest experimentation with music making. Following a later move to Los Angeles, the self-taught musician began to make a name for himself, and with the release of Forever, he blazed into the electronic and pop sphere, collaborating with pop icons Nile Rodgers and Brandy, as well as earning press love from the likes of Noisey, Earmilk, Nylon, and Complex, who declared his music “Some of the most addictive, hypnotizing disco-pop jams you’ll hear.”

Dance Lessons

Ballroom Dance Lessons

All of our instructors are skilled dancers with years of experience. From ballroom competitions to social dance clubs to the professional classroom, our staff aim to help you feel comfortable and confident on the dance floor. Please feel free to come to us with any questions you may have, and we will assist you to the best of our ability. Thank you for your enthusiastic support!

Dance Lesson – American Tango

Sat 9:00 am - 10:30 am – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Developed out of the first styles of Tango from North America and Europe, American Tango is a simplified version of Argentine Tango that is danced by everyone from beginners to world champion competitors. American Tango uses sharper movements than its Argentinian sibling, and is known for its characteristic head snaps.

Dance Lesson – Cha Cha

Fri 10:00 am - 11:30 am – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

One of the five International Latin dances, the Cha-Cha (not the Cha-Cha-Cha) known for its regular syncopations, is a fast and upbeat dance commonly taught first to newcomers of the International Latin style. Get ready for fancy footwork and flaunt your feathers with the staple of Latin dancing.

Dance Lesson – Foxtrot

Fri 5:30 pm - 7:00 pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

A key staple to the International Standard dances, the foxtrot boasts the greatest degree of versatility and style among its peers. Pairing naturally to the musical giants of the 50s and 60s (looking at the Rat Pack here), those comfortable with the foxtrot will find themselves swinging across the floor with a classic grace. Beware however as this is not the easiest dance to jump into.

Dance Lesson – Hustle

Fri 12:00 pm - 1:30 pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

The 1970s are calling with their bell-bottoms and disco music! The Hustle is a catch-all name for disco dances, but when it comes to ballroom, you dance hustle with a partner. This dance includes some elements of swing dancing, and is sometimes called the New York Hustle. It's fun, fast-paced, and best of all? You still get to do the disco point!

Dance Lesson – Night Club 2 Step

Sat 3:00 pm - 4:30 pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Gently swaying side to side is the hallmark of this contemporary dance. Slower modern pop music is the staple of this dance. With a very relaxed feel, Nightclub has a characteristic “quick-quick-slow” beat. This dance is perfect for beginners who are looking to dip their toes in the world of ballroom dance.

Dance Lesson – Rumba

Sat 1:00 pm - 2:30 pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Cha-Cha's slower and sultrier brother, the Rumba is the expressive soul of the International Latin dances. As another incredibly versatile dance, understanding the rumba will show you a whole new meaning to the term “slow dance”.

Dance Lesson – Salsa

Sat 11:00 am - 12:30 pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Is it a Colombian dance? Is it a Cuban dance? Well there are a plethora of adherents to both and both enjoy a popular following throughout the United States. We are proud to announce that... we're only teaching the LA style. Ok, so there's some (or a lot) of room we won't cover, but that shouldn't stop you from learning what is probably the most famous and popular social dance in the US. If you want to learn how to shake your hips at any outing, you have to learn salsa.

Dance Lesson – Single Time Swing

Fri 11:00 am - 12:30 pm – Coliseum (Oregon Ballroom 203/204)

The modern adaptation of the iconic Lindy Hop, the Single Time, or East Coast Swing is the star-child to inherit the swing genre in the modern age. True to its stylistic roots, it enjoys a huge following, danced all over the states for the aficionados of suspenders, polka dots, and big band jazz. If your look is so out of style that it's totally in style, don't miss the Single Time Swing.

Dance Lesson – Slow Waltz

Fri 3:00 pm - 4:30 pm – Coliseum (Oregon Ballroom 203/204)

Originally known as the Boston Waltz, having taken form on our east coast, the slow waltz as it is now called is perhaps the most widely practiced International Standard dance. Usually serving as both the greenhorn's first foray into the genre as well as being the perfect intro into the more iconic Viennese version (the word version perhaps being unfit here as it is the originator of “waltzing”). This is a must-learn if one wants to master the International Standard styles.

Dance Lesson – Viennese Waltz

Fri 1:00 pm - 2:30 pm – Coliseum (Oregon Ballroom 203/204)

If you're thinking about dancing hand-to-hand under ornate chandeliers with hoop skirts twisting and turning while seamlessly transitioning from partner to partner, you're thinking about the Minuet, not the Viennese Waltz. Although it eventually rose its way to prominence among high social circles, the Waltz, with its emphasis on rotation and improvisational nature, required relatively little training to execute and scandalously exposed the bare ankles of the women participating. Despite the prevalence of lewdly exposed ankles, we will continue forward with teaching you the elegant and timeless Viennese Waltz.

Japanese Bon Odori (folk dancing)

Sat 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Bon odori is folk dancing that is done at the Obon festival in the Buddhist temples. We will do dances from Japan as well as dances created in America. These are circle dances to bring the community together so they are simple to do and fun! All dances will be taught.

Pathfinder

Pathfinder is a worldwide fantasy role-playing campaign that puts YOU in the role of an agent of the Pathfinder Society—a legendary league of explorers, archaeologists, and adventurers dedicated to discovering and chronicling the greatest mysteries and wonders of an ancient world beset by magic and evil. The campaign's home base is sprawling Absalom, the so-called City at the Center of the World, that stands astride the great Inner Sea on the mountain-capped Isle of Kortos. As a member of the Pathfinder Society, your character will explore the dark alleys and political intrigue between far flung travels in the world of the Pathfinder role-playing game. Each Pathfinder Society agent also works for one of several competing factions, all with their own motivations and secret agendas. Play is organized into Seasons, throughout which the actions and achievements of you and your fellow Pathfinders create an ongoing storyline. Each season consists of numerous scenarios set in a variety of exotic locations across Golarion.

Pathfinder Society Scenario #3-11: The Quest for Perfection – Part II: On Hostile Waters (PFRPG)

Sat 3:30 pm - 8:30 pm – ORPG (Hall A)

A Pathfinder Society Scenario designed for Levels 1-5.

With an ancient Iroran relic in hand, the Pathfinders must make a long river voyage to the inland nation of Shokuro to return it to the only person who can reactivate the long-dormant artifact. Whether dangers take the form of goblinoid menaces on the shores of Kaoling to the north or the powerful armies of Lingshen to the south, the Pathfinders' journey will be anything but a pleasure cruise. Can the PCs survive hostile waters to safely reach their destination, or will they fall victim to the perils of river travel in Tian Xia?

“On Hostile Waters” is the second scenario in the three-part The Quest for Perfection campaign arc. It follows Pathfinder Society Scenario #3-09: The Quest for Perfection—Part I: The Edge of Heaven and is followed by Pathfinder Society Scenario #3-13: The Quest for Perfection—Part III: Defenders of Nesting Swallow. Sat 9:00 pm - 2:00 am – ORPG (Hall A)

A Pathfinder Society Scenario designed for Levels 1-5.

As the Pathfinders approach the village of Nesting Swallow in the Tian nation of Shokuro, they find it besieged by a gang of tengu bandits. Before their contact in the village will aid them in restoring the Iroran relic that brought them hundreds of miles to the isolated town, the PCs must repulse the attackers, using every ounce of tactical mettle and military strategy they possess to train the villagers, augment their defenses, and ultimately face off against the bandits' charge.

“Defenders of Nesting Swallow” is the final scenario in the three-part The Quest for Perfection campaign arc. It follows Pathfinder Society Scenario #3-09: The Quest for Perfection—Part I: The Edge of Heaven and Pathfinder Society Scenario #3-11: The Quest for Perfection—Part II: On Hostile Waters. All three chapters are intended to be played in order.

Pathfinder Society Scenario #4-21: Way of the Kirin (PFRPG)

Sun 10:00 am - 3:00 pm – ORPG (Hall A)

A Pathfinder Society Scenario designed for levels 3-7.

On the eastern continent of Tian Xia, the Pathfinder Society remains a small player in the greater political landscape, but Amara Li, head of the Lantern Lodge in the teeming city of Goka, has plans to change that. In order to secure the Pathfinder Society's place as an influential organization on the far side of the world from the Grand Lodge in Absalom, she must orchestrate an alliance with the mysterious Way of the Kirin. But the longtime rival of the Pathfinder Society, the Aspis Consortium, has plans to form an alliance of its own, and if the consortium succeeds, the Pathfinder Society's hopes of cementing their place in the Dragon Empires could be dashed forever.

Pathfinder Society Scenario #6-13: Of Kirin and Kraken (PFRPG)

Fri 9:00 pm - 2:00 am – ORPG (Hall A)

A Pathfinder Society Scenario designed for levels 7-11.

When imperial Lung Wa collapsed over a century ago, it shattered not only the political ties that united the successor states but also the philanthropic order known as the Way of the Kirin. Today, despite having allied itself with Venture-Captain Amara Li's thriving Lantern Lodge and funded the Pathfinder Society's endeavors in Tian Xia, the Way controls only a handful of its once-extensive web of strongholds. One of its leaders in Kwanlai has decided that it is time for Amara Li to demonstrate her dedication to her allies: by recovering one of the order's most treasured relics lost in the swamps of Wanshou. It is up to the PCs to brave the realm of a kraken god-king in order to keep the Society's alliance intact.

Content in “Of Kirin and Kraken” also contributes directly to the ongoing storylines of the Sovereign Court faction.

Pathfinder Society Scenario #8-02: Ward Asunder (PFRPG)

Fri 3:30 pm - 8:30 pm – ORPG (Hall A)

A Pathfinder Society Scenario designed for levels 3-7.

The legendary sorceress Hao Jin transferred many abandoned historical sites to her museum demiplane, though even her magic had limits, forcing her to transport only part of an architectural treasure. The half of a temple she left behind in the jungles of Dtang Ma has developed a haunted reputation in the centuries since. Now an unlikely ally has approached the Society with tales of unspoiled historical secrets and hidden treasure left within the shattered sanctuary of Yamatsumi, the mountain god.

This scenario is designed for play in Pathfinder Society Roleplaying Guild but can easily be adapted for use with any world. This scenario is compliant with the Open Game License (OGL) and is suitable for use with the Pathfinder Roleplaying Game.

Pathfinder Society Scenario #8-14: To Seal the Shadow (PFRPG)

Fri 10:00 am - 3:00 pm – ORPG (Hall A)

A Pathfinder Society Scenario designed for levels 1-5.

To most, Mount Shibotai's devastating eruption was a footnote in Tian history. To the shadow-bound wayangs who settled the jagged crater in Minata, the volcano was the reason they inhabited Golarion at all. In their de facto capital Inahiya, the wayangs host an annual festival to commemorate the catastrophe that brought them into this world and forced them to ally with their neighbors against a common threat. On especially auspicious anniversaries, the wayangs invite foreigners to contribute to the ceremony, and the Pathfinder Society has negotiated the privilege of having its agents observe the sacred ceremonies as these outside participants. This is no mere anthropological opportunity, though, and the PCs may be all that stands between their world and an unspeakable evil.

Pathfinder Society Scenario #8-16: House of Harmonious Wisdom (PFRPG)

Fri 10:00 am - 3:00 pm – ORPG (Hall A)

Fri 3:30 pm - 8:30 pm – ORPG (Hall A)

Sun 10:00 am - 3:00 pm – ORPG (Hall A)

A series of five Quests designed for levels 1-5.

Mighty Lung Wa once controlled much of Tian Xia, but the empire crumbled a century ago. Three Successor States have squabbled for dominance ever since, each insisting that it alone is the rightful inheritor of Lung Wa's glory. In the shadow of these mighty nations, the humble land of Shokuro has sought the means to discourage its neighbors' territorial ambitions and earn their respect. When a retired hero learns of a lost, legendary palace that might protect relics of the old empire, she calls on the Pathfinder Society for assistance finding the fabled site. The PCs must travel to each of the Successor States in search of clues to uncover the palace and the treasures within.

House of Harmonious Wisdom includes five 1-hour adventures that take the PCs across central Tian Xia in search of imperial treasures and forgotten secrets. The series includes a beginning adventure and a finale, but players can experience the other parts in any order.

Fri 3:30 pm - 8:30 pm – ORPG (Hall A)

All Starfinders complete their training by conferring with Guidance—a network of uploaded personalities embodying paragons from the Starfinder Society's history. Before receiving the blessing of Guidance, the PCs must meet with and assist critical missions on behalf of key leaders of the Society's leading factions. With the events of the Scoured Stars Incident still fresh in everyone's memory, there's plenty that needs doing to set the Society back on track.

The Commencement is a replayable scenario designed to help introduce players to the factions of the Starfinder Society and areas of importance on Absalom Station.

Starfinder Society Roleplaying Guild Scenario #1-02: Fugitive on the Red Planet

Fri 9:00 pm - 2:00 am – ORPG (Hall A)

A Starfinder Society Scenario designed for levels 1-4.

Theft cannot be tolerated, especially when the culprit is a former Starfinder! The PCs travel to the red world of Akiton, hot on the heels of a deserting Starfinder who stole a magical relic from the vaults of the Lorespire Complex. Things get complicated when they discover what should be a dreary town in Akiton's wastelands is now positively jubilant. Could this revelry, not to mention the re-opening of town's formerly defunct mining operations, be related to the wayward Starfinder?

Following up on this old lead, the Society dispatches a team of Starfinder to investigate the far-off world. Between making first contact and exploring the ruins of a dead civilization, long-buried secrets of the past are ripe for discovery.

Content in Yesteryear's Truth also contributes to the ongoing goals of the Wayfinders faction.

Sat 9:00 pm - 2:00 am - ORPG (Hall A)

Sun 10:00 am - 3:00 pm - ORPG (Hall A)

Enter a world of adventure with the Pathfinder Adventure Card Guild, a cooperative game for 1 to 4 players. Each player has a unique character composed of a deck of cards and a set of stats. Roleplayers will find the stats very familiar—characters have classes such as fighter, wizard, and rogue, as well as numbers that define strength, dexterity, intelligence, etc. You'll improve your character by acquiring new items, allies, spells, and weapons as you explore and overcome challenges; over time, you'll be able to customize your deck to better suit your own individual vision of your character.

Shadowrun

Shadowrun is a near-future RPG that blends all your favorite elements of fantasy such as magic, elves, and dragons, as well as your favorite sci-fi elements of an immersive virtual reality internet, hackers, cyberware, drones, guns, and throws them into our world in the year 2076. You will play a Shadowrunner, a criminal who does the dirty work the corporations can't admit they do. See if you can survive this rough and tumble semi-dystopian sci-fi/fantasy adventure. The Shadowrun 5th edition system uses D6 dice, and has you roll your dice pool against the GM to resolve tests.

In most cases this means the item must be filled with glue and all moving parts rendered immobile.

Purchased items: If you buy a prop in the Exhibits Hall or Artist Alley, remember to get it peace-bonded, if needed. Also, exhibitors occasionally sell a few things that you can't carry around the con at all, like live steel swords. We'd like to thank the following conventions for participating in Kumoricon 2017, and/or donating their time and help throughout the year.

A-Kon • Anime Central • Anime Evolution • Anime Expo • Anime Milwaukee • Anime Oasis • Beta-Con • Colorado Anime Fest • Katsukon • KuroNekoCon • Maturicon • MiyakoCon • Mochitsuki • Naka-Kon • Oregon Asian Celebration • OSFCI • Otafest • Otakon Vegas • PCC Haru Con • Portland Retro Gaming Expo • Project Anime • Radiant NW • Rose City Comic Con • Sabakon • Sakura-Con • YaoiCon

Additionally, the Industry department and Outreach Committee would like to thank the convention running community as a whole. It's with this community's help that we are able to grow every year, share ideas, and continue to run amazing events. Please continue being awesome, geeky, weird, and fabulous!

Maid Café - Special Thank You!

We'd like to extend a special thank you to Katsucon's (Clarisse, Kady, and Amanda), and Naka-kon's (Eva) Maid Café Staff. We appreciate being able to rely on our friends in the industry to help us bring this new event to Kumoricon 2017. Without your insight and assistance Kumoricon's Maid Café would not be happening this year.

Charity Thank You

Kumoricon would like to extend our thanks to everyone that donated items to our charity auction, those that assisted in getting items signed, and all our charity bidders, food, and blood drive donators! We strive to serve our community, and hope to continue to bring our attendees new charity activities.
