LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

Boy, it's been a wild year.

When I was seventeen, I first attended a small anime convention called Kumoricon. It took place in a few small rooms in the Portland Marriott. I was nervous when I first went, but I made some friends I still have to this day, and I just fell in love with it. I loved being able to wander into viewing rooms and see new things, I loved hearing about interesting topics regarding anime in the panels, and finding all these other people who would talk with me about anime I'm interested in. I had bought a day badge and came right back the next day to buy another, and I started coming back year after year.

Fourteen years later, I'm running the thing. And I'm still watching anime! Have you guys seen Megalo Box? It's awesome. See it.

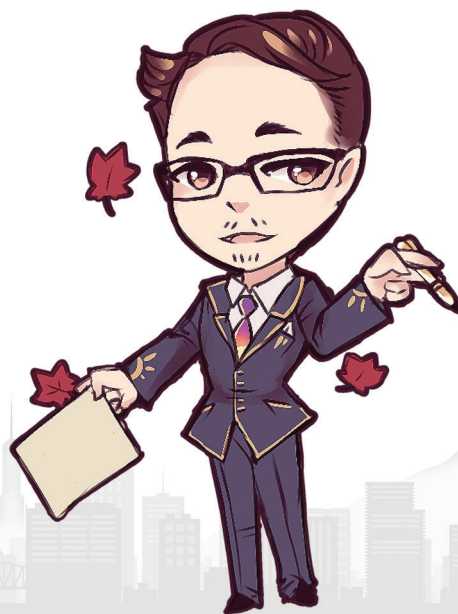

This is the experience I still want everyone attending to have. Our convention has grown and matured, but we want to do everything to make this convention a welcoming, fun place for people of similar interests to get together and nerd out. Plus, it's better to hang out with friends (and make new ones) when you've got so many fun things to see and do!

I sincerely hope every one of you has a blast at this convention. We're getting bigger and better, and aiming to bring you as many fun events as we possibly can. Ghost Neko's Purranormal Maid Café returns for a second year after its incredibly popular debut, and we're also introducing The Late Night Umbrella Lounge, our 21+ late night anime bar! We still have all the fan panels you know and love, and a truly mind-boggling amount of guests. I'm not exaggerating when I say that if I were to write them all out, they would take up most of this page. We have great staff all working together to bring you a great convention, and we know you'll enjoy it.

Also, we're sustainable! The Oregon Convention Center strives to be the greenest convention center in the world, and works with each event to be as green as they can be, in order to keep our land, air, and water clean. We have kept to their stringent policies for two years now, and are officially a "Sustainability Partner!"

Most of all I want to thank all of you for coming and attending this convention. It's because of all of you that we continue to grow, to bring big guests, and to try new and creative programming. We love that you love this convention, and we love your passion and energy. You're the reason we put this on, year after year, and we want you to think you're welcome.

Sincerely,
Brian Mathews
Kumoricon Chair / President

CIARÁN STRANGE & WE ARE THE CHAOS

Much to his amusement, he's been compared in the past to David Bowie, Tony Stark, Haruko Haruhara, Ramona Flowers, and Tank Girl—but I.R.L., we know him as Ciarán Strange, an eccentric and powerful LGBTQ+ artist who blends pop sensibilities, dynamic rock guitars, and high-energy live shows into his own brand of geeky pop-punk. At seventeen, he left his family, friends, and little English fishing village behind in order to chase his dreams to Vancouver, BC, where he now resides indulging in his passion for many different facets of art and performance including music, writing, voice acting, acting, vlogging, and pro-wrestling!

The redheaded, bedheaded geek has toured multiple countries in the past half-decade including the U.S., the U.K., Canada, and Japan, performing at hundreds of shows, conventions, and festivals. Sometime in the summer of 2016, Ciarán joined forces with kindred artistic spirit Dave Kitsberg; the two are now delving into the world of geeky covers and parodies, as well as writing fresh original concept material in all sub-genres of pop-rock influenced by many of their collaborative fandom inspirations. This cache of new music the pair are working tirelessly on is set to be released in the fall and winter of 2018/19 under the band name We Are The Chaos.

KIONCLOUD

With a love for creativity and a passion for hands-on crafts, KionCloud found themselves intrigued with the idea of cosplay when it was first introduced into their life. Kion began their own cosplay journey in the autumn of 2013 about a year after discovering the exciting new hobby.

They enjoy honing their skills in the many artistic aspects of cosplay encompassing making costumes, creating YouTube videos, as well as in-person performances in front of audiences. While attending several cosplay and Japanese cultural conventions throughout Washington and Oregon, Kion has participated in many live events including cosplay chess and several in-character panels. In addition to enjoying the various facets of cosplay they also strive to be a positive influence in the cosplay community and enjoy the interactions they have with their followers on social media platforms such as Instagram. Offering a wide range of lectures and interactive workshops, Dan and his lethal love Jillian are guaranteed to provide con attendees fun and fulfillment.

Due to a supreme lack of filter, Dan also performs standup comedy, and lives to embarrass his wife onstage, in censored and uncensored settings

J. MICHAEL TATUM

Nurtured on anime classics from the tender age of Star Blazers, et al, this reclusive actor/writer spent more years than he cares to remember in what might charitably be called free-fall before landing, mostly by accident, smack dab on the industry of his dreams. To this day, some believe the small crater made by the impact remains the source of his power.

Cast as Rikichi in 2005's Samurai 7, Tatum's inexplicable luck has held long enough to see his flag hoisted on a slew of dream roles, most notably Kyoya Ootori in Ouran High School Host Club, suave, demonic Sebastian Michaelis in Black Butler, France in the Hetalia franchise, Tomoe from Kamisama Kiss, and the equal parts maniacal/vulnerable Okarin Rintarou from Steins;Gate. Amano went pro straight out of junior high school, when at age 15 he began working at the legendary anime studio Tatsunoko, where his first job was training on the famous anime series Speed Racer. At age 17, he became the first person in the anime industry to specialize in character design, a task which had previously been done by directors or animators.

In the 1980s, Amano began to develop an independent career as one of Japan's most sought-after character and design illustrators, painting hundreds of science fiction and fantasy magazine book covers. Amano won the Seiun Award (often regarded as Japan's version of the Hugo Award) for Best Artist four years in a row beginning in 1983. His mysterious, atmospheric style attracted the creators of a new video game concept in 1987 called Final Fantasy, who hired Amano to give a distinctive artistic vision to the game. Amano would go on to design many of the characters, monsters, weapons, and vehicles of the first ten Final Fantasy games, visually influencing a worldwide fan base through the new frontier of video games, as he had earlier done through the medium of anime. reverse harem (n) – a popular genre in anime/manga, ft. one female surrounded by three or more males all in some form of love with her. (Fushigi Yuugi, Ouran High, Fruits Basket, et al)

Voice actor Lauren Landa (Attack on Titan, Sailor Moon) has been busting her tail bringing one of these intricate relationship dynamics to life as she directs the brand new audiobook of Phoenixcry by K.T. Strange! This steamy saga follows the story of a rock band of werewolves and their manager, a young witch with zero mastery of her powers and even less interest in the magical world.

Joining Lauren and K.T. is rockstar and rookie author Ciarán (C.J.) Strange, who is now elbow-deep in his own RH series: the lieutenant of a freedom fighting brigade must rebuild using her surviving members. The dystopian thriller has been compared to Suicide Squad, X-Men, and 1984, and lauded for its rare authenticity as fiction set in modern Britain.

All books are available on Amazon for anyone who wants to do any pre-reading!

But since manga gets released in the US straight to trade paperback, we never get to see manga as the original Japanese readers do. Get a look at over 25 different current (and classic) manga magazines from Japan, including what some Dark Horse stories looked like when they were first published, what kind of ads ran in them, what the cover art was like, and more!

DANCE LESSONS

Ballroom Dance Lessons

All of our instructors are skilled dancers with years of experience. From ballroom competitions to social dance clubs to the professional classroom, our staff aim to help you feel comfortable and confident on the dance floor. Please feel free to come to us with any questions you may have, and we will assist you to the best of our ability. Thank you for your enthusiastic support!

Dance Lesson – American Tango

Fri 12:00pm-1:30pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Developed out of the first styles of Tango from North America and Europe, American Tango is a simplified version of Argentine Tango that is danced by everyone from beginners to world champion competitors. American Tango uses sharper movements than its Argentinian sibling, and is known for its characteristic head snaps.

Dance Lesson – Cha-Cha

Fri 10:00am-11:30am – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

One of the five International Latin dances, the Cha-Cha (not the Cha-Cha-Cha), known for its regular syncopations, is a fast and upbeat dance commonly taught first to newcomers of the International Latin style. Get ready for fancy footwork and flaunt your feathers with the staple of Latin dancing.

Dance Lesson – Foxtrot

Fri 4:00pm-5:30pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

A key staple to the International Standard dances, the foxtrot boasts the greatest degree of versatility and style among its peers. Pairing naturally to the musical giants of the 50s and 60s (looking at the Rat Pack here), those comfortable with the foxtrot will find themselves swinging across the floor with a classic grace. Beware however as this is not the easiest dance to jump into.

Dance Lesson – Hustle

Sat 9:00am-10:30am – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

The 1970s are calling with their bell-bottoms and disco music! The Hustle is a catch-all name for disco dances, but when it comes to ballroom, you dance hustle with a partner. This dance includes some elements of swing dancing, and is sometimes called the New York Hustle. It's fun, fast-paced, and best of all? You still get to do the disco point!

Dance Lesson – Night Club 2 Step

Sat 3:00pm-4:30pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Gently swaying side to side is the hallmark of this contemporary dance. Slower modern pop music is the staple of this dance. With a very relaxed feel, Nightclub has a characteristic "quick-quick-slow" beat. This dance is perfect for beginners who are looking to dip their toes in the world of ballroom dance.

Dance Lesson – Rumba

Sat 1:00pm-2:30pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Cha-Cha's slower and sultrier brother, the Rumba is the expressive soul of the International Latin dances. As another incredibly versatile dance, understanding the rumba will show you a whole new meaning to the term "slow dance".

Dance Lesson – Salsa

Sat 11:00am-12:30pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Is it a Colombian dance? Is it a Cuban dance? Well, there are a plethora of adherents to both and both enjoy a popular following throughout the United States. We are proud to announce that... we're only teaching the LA style. Ok, so there's some (or a lot) of room we won't cover, but that shouldn't stop you from learning what is probably the most famous and popular social dance in the US. If you want to learn how to shake your hips at any outing, you have to learn salsa.

Dance Lesson – Single Time Swing

Fri 11:00am-12:30pm – Coliseum (Oregon Ballroom 203/204)

The modern adaptation of the iconic Lindy Hop, the Single Time, or East Coast Swing is the star-child to inherit the swing genre in the modern age. True to its stylistic roots, it enjoys a huge following, danced all over the states for the aficionados of suspenders, polka dots, and big band jazz. If your look is so out of style that it's totally in style, don't miss the Single Time Swing.

Dance Lesson – Slow Waltz

Fri 3:00pm-4:30pm – Coliseum (Oregon Ballroom 203/204)

Originally known as the Boston Waltz, having taken form on our east coast, the slow waltz as it is now called is perhaps the most widely practiced International Standard dance. Usually serving as both the greenhorn's first foray into the genre as well as being the perfect intro into the more iconic Viennese version (the word version perhaps being unfit here as it is the originator of "waltzing"). This is a must-learn if one wants to master the International Standard styles.

Dance Lesson – Viennese Waltz

Fri 1:00pm-2:30pm – Coliseum (Oregon Ballroom 203/204)

If you're thinking about dancing hand-to-hand under ornate chandeliers with hoop skirts twisting and turning while seamlessly transitioning from partner to partner, you're thinking about the Minuet, not the Viennese Waltz. Although it eventually rose its way to prominence among high social circles, the Waltz, with its emphasis on rotation and improvisational nature, required relatively little training to execute and scandalously exposed the bare ankles of the women participating. Despite the prevalence of lewdly exposed ankles, we will continue forward with teaching you the elegant and timeless Viennese Waltz.

Japanese Bon Odori (folk dancing)

Sat 5:00pm-7:00pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Bon odori is folk dancing that is done at the Obon festival in the Buddhist Temples. We will do dances from Japan as well as dances created in America. These are circle dances to bring the community together so they are simple to do and fun! All dances will be taught.

Are you a fan of K-Pop? Love the groups and their dancing? Then come join us for our mix of teaching and half an hour of straight medley dancing so everyone can show off their moves!

Learn K-Pop Beginner Level Panel

Fri 2:00pm-3:30pm – Arena (Oregon Ballroom 202)

Are you a fan of K-pop and have always wanted to learn how to dance to your favorite songs but don't really have a lot of experience dancing? No problem! Come join us and we'll teach you!

Are you a fan of K-pop and have a love for dancing? Come join us at our panel for our advanced selection of songs! The choreography may be a bit challenging to get down, but we'll have fun being with one another and doing what we enjoy!

AUTOGRAPH PASSES

After Kumoricon 2017, we received an overwhelming amount of feedback leading us to change how we handle autographs. As a result, Kumoricon is launching a new system for autographs for 2018!

Starting with Kumoricon 2018, all autograph sessions require an advance pass, which will be distributed by random drawing two hours in advance. There will be no pass distribution at the autograph session.

Step 1 – Enter the autograph pass drawing

- To enter the random drawing for a pass, you must arrive at the drawing line during the 30-minute entry period. This will be between 2 and 2.5 hours in advance of the autograph session. The schedule for the autograph pass drawings will be included on the programming schedule. No late arrivals will be accommodated.
- Every autograph session has its own separate drawing session.
- All attendees who arrive within the 30-minute entry period will have an equal chance at drawing a winning pass. (When the line is closed, we count the number of people in line, and only then, start the drawing.)
- The slip that you draw will immediately show whether you have a winning pass or not.
- Sometimes, separate drawing sessions for more than one guest are held at the same time. When this happens, you must choose which one to enter—you can't enter both.

- Winning passes are divided into two priority groups. There are approximately 80 "Group A" passes which receive first priority, and approximately 40 "Group B" passes which are time-available waitlist passes which are served after all "Group A" passholders.
- Passes are free, and no purchase is required to enter the drawing.
- Passes cannot be given away or sold. We will record your badge number or name on your photo ID at the time of drawing a winning pass.
- If you win the drawing, your winning pass is only for a single person, not your entire group. However, if you choose, you may immediately assign your winning pass to another person who is standing with you in your group. Once assigned at time of drawing, the winning pass cannot be transferred.
- We will not replace lost passes.
- Due to the possibility of unforeseen circumstances, we reserve the right to end a drawing early or cancel a drawing session.
- Need accessibility accommodations? Please read below: Disabilities accommodations

Step 2 – Attend the guest signing session

- To enter the signing line, you must hold a winning pass from the drawing for that guest, date, and session time. You must also present your valid Kumoricon 2018 badge.
- We apologize, but members of your group who do not hold winning passes cannot stand in line with you, except for parents/guardians accompanying minors, or persons providing disabilities assistance.
- Passholders may arrive at the signing session line up to 30 minutes early.
- There are separate lines for "Group A" and "Group B" passholders. "Group A" passholders receive first priority.
- Late arrivals may enter the line, but may receive lower priority, even if holding a "Group A" pass.
- We apologize, but if you miss the signing session for your pass, it cannot be transferred to a later session.
- Although we intend there to be enough time to serve all "Group A" passholders and some "Group B" passholders, due to the possibility of unforeseen circumstances or guest emergencies, we cannot guarantee any passholder will receive an autograph. We apologize, but we cannot transfer your pass to a different session in this situation.

Autograph rules

- All autographs are at the guest's discretion. We cannot guarantee an autograph from any specific guest. Guests have the right to refuse to autograph anything or for anyone at their individual discretion. Some guests may have special requests: no photos, only one item, etc.
- Autographs are limited to 2 free autographs per person. Gifts, photos and recordings are included in the 2 item limit. Items for guests to sign must be official, licensed products (no bootlegs). Fan art is acceptable for some guests; please confirm with autograph staff before you reach the guest. Guests may have merchandise or prints available for purchase while at the session, at their discretion. Please have items ready for autograph or payment ready for making a purchase when you are near the front of the line.

- Guests may refuse gifts, photos, or recordings individually or entirely at their discretion.
- To provide a fair signing opportunity to all attendees, please limit your time with a guest to one minute or less.
- You may take photos while your guest signs your items, but to save time, we ask that guests don't pose or pause for photos. A member of the Autographs staff can take a photo for you while your item(s) is signed.
- No touching guests without permission. Ask first for hugs, handshakes, etc., and respect that a guest may be sick or tired, or have some other reason for not wanting to give hugs.
- The following gifts are prohibited: gifts of homemade food, gifts of pre-packaged consumables that have been opened, or gifts of pre-packaged consumables with tampered packaging. All consumable gifts must be pre-packaged with visible seals intact, without exception. If you have a consumable gift, you must present your gift to a Guest Relations handler for approval, prior to presenting the gift to a guest.
- Please remember that items to be signed or gifts must follow Kumoricon policies, such as props and weapons. Please review our Code of Conduct if you have questions about if your item would be allowed.

Disabilities accommodations

- If you require disabilities accommodation, either for the random drawing line, or for the autograph session, please inform Kumoricon staff prior to entering the random drawing. A certain number of passes are set aside for a drawing for those requiring disabilities accommodation.

General Q&A

How many items can I have signed?

We limit everyone to 2 free autographs. You may bring items with you to be signed, purchase items from the guest, or have your Kumoricon badge or convention book signed.

Can I pay for extra items to be signed?

Guests may have merchandise for sale during their autograph sessions which can be purchased in addition to the 2 free autographs.

Will guests have posters, prints or other items for me to purchase?

Guests are welcome to have their own merchandise for sale and will have prices listed at their sessions. Kumoricon does not control or benefit from these sales and has no involvement in setting prices.

Will guests have a booth in the Exhibits Hall?

Some guests may have a booth where they hold additional signings. While we try to make sure we can list all of these opportunities on the schedule, information on a guest's additional signings may not be available until the convention. Kumoricon does not control or benefit from any sales at a guest's booth and has no involvement in setting prices or signing times.

Will artists and cosplay guests have signings? What about sketch sessions or photo ops?

Each guest is different. Please keep an eye on schedule announcements for any special guest events.

Only 120 passes per session? How did you get that number?

The number of passes is based on our past experience with how quickly autograph lines move, how fast a guest is at signing, demand, the length of the session etc. This is the same average we've been using to cap autograph lines in the past, so the number of people getting autographs won't be changing.

Does the 120 passes include the accessible signing passes?

Yes it does.

If there are accessible signing passes left over for a session, can I have one if I do not require disabilities accommodation?

If there are fewer attendees holding accessible signing passes in line when it closes than there are passes, A or B group passes may be substituted and added to the regular drawing.

How early can I line up for a session if I have a pass?

30 minutes prior to the session's start time.

Can my friend/significant other line up with me?

Due to space constraints, only the passholder may stand in the autograph line. The exceptions being parents/guardians accompanying minors, and attendants for persons with disabilities.

What if I "split" my pass? I get one item signed and my friend gets the other item?

Again, each person in line must have their own pass. You are more than welcome to have a friend get something signed for you if they have a pass. But you both cannot stand in the line.

What if I miss my session? Can I go to another for that guest?

No, passes do not transfer or roll over to another session if you cannot attend or miss the session.

If some people with passes don't show up, will the staff let more people into the autograph line?

No, we will not hand out additional passes, or open up the autograph line for those without passes.

Autograph Pass Q&A

When do I line up to draw for an autograph pass?

Drawing times will be listed on the schedule for each session, generally this will be two hours prior to the start of the autograph session. The line for autograph passes will be open for 30 minutes, then the pass drawing will start.

Can I re-enter the pass drawing line if I didn't draw a pass the first time?

No, the line will only be open for 30 minutes. Once the line is closed the line will not be re-opened unless the number of people in the line is less than the number of passes available for that session.

Can someone hold my place in line for the pass drawing?

No, you must be in the line when it closes in order to participate in the pass drawing. This is to avoid confusion as to who is in line and who is not.

What happens if there are more passes left after the random drawing?

If this happens passes will be handed out at the Autograph Pass Booth until 30 minutes prior to the session start time, or until all passes have been handed out.

Can I trade my pass, or give it to someone else?

At the immediate time that you draw a winning pass, you may choose to assign your pass to another person who is standing in line with you. Once assigned at time of drawing, the winning pass cannot be further transferred. We will record the badge number or name on photo ID of the person winning the pass or to whom the pass is assigned.

If someone gives me a pass and I already had one for that session can I get more things signed?

No, passes are limited to one per person, per session.

How long will the drawing take?

It depends on the number of people in line hoping to draw a pass. We will move the lines as quickly as we possibly can once the drawing begins.

Photograph Q&A

Can I get my picture taken with the guest?

To make sure we get through as many people as possible, we ask that guests don't pose during the autograph sessions. If you would like a photo taken, a Kumoricon staff member will be able to take pictures while the guest is signing for you. We do request you ask permission before using flash for photographs.

What about photo ops?

Kumoricon does not offer comic con-style photo ops with guests at this time.

VIP Autograph Session Q&A

I'm a VIP. Can I attend the regularly scheduled autograph sessions?

Absolutely! However, VIPs do not get priority access during the normal autograph sessions, and if choosing to attend a non-VIP session, must participate in the random pass drawing. For a more exclusive autograph session with our Guests of Honor, please attend the VIP autograph session.

Will all VIPs get autographs from all guests?

While all guests are encouraged to participate in the VIP Autograph Session, sometimes due to scheduling constraints it is not possible for every guest to be present. In some cases we can allow VIPs access to a guest's other signing if they cannot be present at the VIP signing. All guests that will be participating in the VIP Autograph Sessions will be announced with the programming schedule.

Do I need a pass for the VIP session if I'm a VIP?

No, your VIP badge will grant you access to the VIP autograph session.

Can my non-VIP friend join me at the VIP session if they aren't getting an autograph?

Unfortunately to avoid confusion and to assist with making sure every VIP member is accommodated within the VIP session we ask that only VIP members attend the VIP autograph session. If you have a parent/guardian, or ADA attendant that does not have a VIP membership, please contact vip@kumoricon.org for more information.

When will the VIP signing be?

The time of the VIP session will be announced with the rest of the programming schedule.

Disabilities Accommodation Q&A

Do I need to get a pass if I require disabilities accommodations?

Yes, there will be a separate drawing for accessible signing passes. You'll need let the autographs staff in the autograph pass line know that you require accommodation so you are participating in the correct drawing. You will still need to line up during the 30 minutes that the pass line is open for the session you wish to attend.

What if I have a disability that prevents me from standing for long periods of time? Do I still need to wait in line to get a pass/the autograph line?

Please let an autograph staffer know that you need accommodation and we will do our best to accommodate you.

What do I need to do if I get a pass?

Proceed to your autograph session no more than 30 minutes prior to the start time with your autograph pass. Attendants for persons with disabilities are permitted to accompany the pass holder. If you require additional assistance, please make that clear to the autographs staff in the autographs area. Please visit the Operations Office for further disability accommodations throughout the convention.

What if accessible signing passes run out for the session I want to attend? Can I still go?

Unfortunately, accessible signing passes are limited per session. This is to help accommodate as many people as possible for each session. The accessible signing pass line will be run simultaneously to the pass line for A and B pass types, thus you will not be able to enter the other line once you have had your chance to draw for a pass in the accessible signing line.

Staff Autographs Q&A

Can I attend regular autograph sessions like in the past?

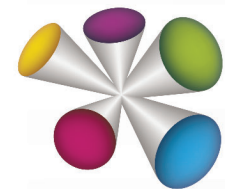

Yes, however you must get a pass.

What if I can't attend the VIP signing or wait in line for an autograph pass?

You can hand your items off to another willing staffer to have signed. You can also talk with your manager about having that time free so you may attend the VIP signing. Please visit the Staff Autographs Q&A (staff login required) for more information on staff autograph sessions.
